

JOHN MUCCI

⌘ BIOGRAPHY ⌘

John Mucci is a member of Corporate Performance Consultants Senior Executive Team since 2009.

For over 25 years, John has successfully managed products, manufacturing and supply chain, engineering, logistics and distributions services for domestic and international companies. John has built a solid reputation for his ability to lead management teams through difficult transitions by establishing practical and highly efficient structures and processes.

Career Highlights

- Earlier in his career, was part of the management team that developed a company into one of the largest builders of textile machines in the U.S. Northeast.
- Spent 20 years at Festo Corporation reaching the position of Vice President of Operations responsible for leading a multimillion dollar global supply chain network spanning over 100 countries.
- A proven track record in the fields of manufacturing, warehouse layout, ISO 9001, SAP, MPR, SOP. Also has the financial expertise to support all these areas.
- Joined Enable Advisors, a management consulting group providing operational advisory and investment banking services to mid-sized technology-based firms.
- John has served on the Board of Directors for Farmingdale State University working to bring internships to local businesses.