

STACY A. LUFT

⌘ BIOGRAPHY ⌘

Stacy Luft has been a member of the Corporate Performance Consultants Senior Executive Team since 2008. She is dedicated to bringing Chief Financial Officer services to small businesses with a need but the inability to bring on a full time financial executive.

Stacy is an accomplished Financial and Operations Executive with a solid track record of maximizing productivity, cost-efficiency and scalable growth in companies ready to emerge to the next level. Equipped with strong leadership skills, she knows how to build high performance teams producing extraordinary results. One of the keys to her success is her ability to create an atmosphere of integrity and accountability while maintaining strong goal-oriented, financial achievement.

Career Highlights

- Began career in accounting positions at a number of small Long Island firms.
- Became CFO and COO of International Display Systems (IDS) in 2004 where she was responsible for developing, efficiently implementing and directing all financial and operating policies and practices.
- Has built a reputation for providing small companies with the ability to align functions and priorities to improve cash flows, increase buying power, attain high levels of efficiency, establish goal setting and accountability procedures and reduce the level of stress that pervades companies during financial crunch periods.
- A proven skilled negotiator with highly developed analytical, organizational and communicating skills that creates positive solutions.
- Active member of the Long Island Chapter of Financial Executive Women (FEW).